

Apply for temporary accommodation

Consent form

Full name

Date of birth

Current prison or home detention address

1. Accommodation consent

Do you give HMPPS permission to apply for temporary accommodation on your behalf?

Nacro is a housing charity that provides accommodation for people leaving the criminal justice system.

They'll use your data to match you with suitable accommodation, and also to support their planning.

You must give consent in order to apply.

- ☐ Yes - share my information with the accommodation provider
- ☐ No - don't apply for accommodation

Ministry
of Justice

2. Healthcare consent

In order to apply for temporary accommodation, HMPPS also needs permission to access and share your healthcare information with Nacro. This will help them to make sure any potential housing meets your needs.

You must give consent in order to apply.

Do you give permission for health services to share health information about you for your application?

- ☐ Yes - share information about my communication needs such as language, hearing or visual impairments
- ☐ Yes - share information about any cognitive impairments such as learning difficulties that might affect my ability to live independently
- ☐ Yes - share information about any physical needs or mobility issues
- ☐ Yes - share information about any substance misuse needs
- ☐ Yes - share information about mental health

Applicants signature:

Date:

Confirmed by official (print name and job title):

Sign:

Ministry
of Justice